PRESS RELEASE

January 2, 2016

Grocery Store Robbed

Pacifica, CA- On January 1, 2016 at approximately 10:46 P.M., officers from the Pacifica Police Department responded to the Safeway store located at 1380 Linda Mar Center on a report of a robbery. Store employees reported that at approximately 10:15 P.M. a subject entered the store and gained access to the "safe room" where he proceeded to demand money. The subject took an undetermined amount of currency and restrained an employee, then fled the store in an unknown direction. The subject was possibly armed with a firearm.

The subject was described as a white male wearing a black hooded ski jacket with tan lining and khaki pants. The subject was also reported to have been wearing a mask which looked like the face of an "old man". Anyone with information regarding this robbery is encouraged to contact the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314. Anonymous tips may be left on the Silent Witness Tip Line at (650) 359-4444 or online at: <http://www.cityofpacifica.org/depts/police/>

The investigation is on-going, refer to case number 16-0011.
